

Alabama Department of Archives & History Facilities Use Guide

In 1901, Alabama created the first state department of archives and history in the United States. Collections in the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH) include the documents and artifacts that tell the story of the people of Alabama.

Professional organizations, state agencies, and civic groups may use ADAH facilities for board meetings, workshops, training sessions, and seminars when these spaces are not being used for department-related purposes. Events at the Archives must be consistent with the institution's historical charter. The facility is not available for private social events such as weddings. Rooms provide a functional venue for seated groups as small as 8 and as large as 150. In most instances, use of ADAH facilities requires payment of fees.

Parking is available on the streets around our building and in the ADAH free parking lot. Lodging and restaurants are available a short distance from the building. The Archives is compliant with ADA regulations.

ADAH facilities are available for special events Monday through Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., excluding state holidays. Event bookings outside these normal business hours are contingent on staff availability and require additional fees. A Facilities Use Agreement must be signed confirming any event reservation.

For more information concerning Archives facility use and fees, contact the ADAH Security/Facility Manager at (334) 353-4719.

ADAH FACILITIES USE GUIDE

OVERVIEW

MEETINGS DURING NORMAL WORKING HOURS

Types of Events & Booking Policy: When not scheduled for Department activities, ADAH meeting rooms and auditorium facilities are available for use by outside agencies. In addition, all building use must meet the requirements of the State of Alabama Department of Finance Building Use Policy (11/03/06).

Available Rooms & Fees: The ADAH has two meeting rooms and two auditorium areas available for use during the day. Generally, use of these areas requires payment of a fee. See Section B for details on room sizes, capacities, amenities, and restrictions. See Section F for an overview of facility use costs.

Equipment: The ADAH can provide audiovisual equipment for events if needed. Equipment use requires payment of an additional fee, which includes compensation for staff time required to set up and/or operate the equipment. All meeting rooms and auditoriums have Internet capability. The ADAH Information Technology (IT) staff must configure the client's equipment to our network, or the client must use ADAH equipment. A small number of tables and chairs are also available. See Section B for specifics.

Catering/Alcohol Use: Events with food and beverages are allowed in the auditoriums and third-floor meeting rooms during normal business hours. Food and drinks are not permitted in the Museum Galleries or the Research Room. Alcoholic beverages may not be consumed on ADAH premises during normal business hours. See Section A (Catering Requirements) for specific requirements. These requirements apply to both professional caterers and clients who bring in their own food and drinks.

Setups/Maintenance: Setup for events must be coordinated through the ADAH Security/Facility Manager to ensure minimal interference with daily operations. Setup and removal of rental equipment are the responsibility of the client. Clients should provide their own serving staff during events. Maintenance/clean-up after events inside the building during normal business hours is included as part of the rental fee. The client is responsible for equipment, set-up and removal, and clean-up for events outside the ADAH building. See Section A (Setups and Maintenance) for further information.

AFTER-HOUR EVENTS

Types of Events and Booking Policy: ADAH facilities may be rented for special events outside of normal business hours. These functions must be consistent with the institution's historical charter. The facilities are not available for private social functions such as weddings, engagement parties, anniversaries, birthdays, or other private parties. Section A (Reservation Procedures) provides further guidance on procedures for requesting the use of any space at the ADAH.

Available Rooms & Fees: Two auditorium areas are available as meeting rooms. The first-floor lobby and the Milo Howard Auditorium are available for receptions, and the E. E. Hale Room is also available for small receptions. See Section B for information on sizes and capacity of venues. Section F provides an overview of facility use costs.

Food and drinks are not permitted in the Museum Galleries or Research Room. The serving of alcoholic beverages is the responsibility of the client, who must accept all liability associated with the serving and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises. See Section A (Alcohol) and (Catering Requirements) for specific requirements. Requirements apply to both professional caterers and clients who bring in their own food and drinks.

Setups/Maintenance: All facility event setups (catered or non-catered) must be coordinated through the ADAH Security/Facility Manager. Setup and removal of rental equipment are the responsibility of the client. Clients must provide their own serving staff during events and additional fees are required for custodial staff. See Section A (Setups and Maintenance) for further information.

EVENTS OUTSIDE THE ARCHIVES

Types of Events and Booking Policy: Events at the ADAH must be consistent with the institution's historical charter. All requests for use of the grounds and plaza outside the ADAH building must be coordinated through the ADAH Security/Facility Manager. See Section A (Reservation Procedures) and (Noise Restrictions) for further information.

Available Areas & Fees: The north (Washington Ave.) Archives grounds can be used by small and large groups. During business hours, events must not interfere with the regular work of the Archives. Events and activities which may damage trees, landscaping, or the sprinkler system are not allowed. Heavy trucks and equipment which may damage landscaping and sprinkler heads are not allowed on the lawn.

ADAH FACILITIES USE GUIDE

SECTION A - POLICY DETAILS

The following is a list of conditions for use of the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH) facilities by outside clients.

Alcohol

Alcoholic beverages may not be consumed on the ADAH premises during normal work hours. Serving alcoholic beverages during after-hours events is the responsibility of the client, and the client accepts all liability associated with and related to consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises. Alcoholic beverages may not be sold on the property, and alcohol may not be served to minors or intoxicated persons.

Audiovisual Equipment

Audiovisual resources generally are available for client use for an additional fee. This service includes support by ADAH staff. Audiovisual requirements must be discussed with the ADAH Facility/Security Manager as part of the reservation process and equipment reservations will be confirmed in the Facility Use Agreement. The Archives will make every effort to provide equipment to the client, but requirements of the Department of Archives and History must take priority. Clients may use their own equipment in meeting rooms other than the Alabama Power Auditorium, although the ADAH Information Technology staff must configure the client equipment to the ADAH network if Internet access is needed. The Alabama Archives is not responsible for set-up, maintenance, or overnight security of client-owned equipment.

Cancellations

Client cancellations must be submitted in writing no later than five (5) days prior to the event to receive a refund. The ADAH reserves the right to cancel any event in instances of unforeseeable circumstances such as inclement weather, building damage, fire, or any other incident beyond the control of the ADAH. Additionally, failure of clients to comply with any of ADAH guidelines stated herein, or a change in an already agreed-upon event which could affect the ADAH in a negative manner, could result in cancellation of the event without refund.

Catering Requirements

Catered events are normally limited to meeting rooms, auditoriums, and the first floor lobby. Food or drinks are not permitted in the Museum Galleries or Research Room. All details of catering requirements must be coordinated with the ADAH Security/Facility Manager as part of the reservation process. The ADAH does not provide catering services and has no preference for caterers used at our facility. A small catering kitchen is available on the building's 3rd floor for use during after-hour events, but clients must meet with the Security/Facility Manager to discuss equipment availability and use. There is no extra charge for use of these facilities, but clients are responsible for cleaning the kitchen and removing garbage after the event.

Event setups and delivery of catered items must be coordinated with the Security/Facility Manager. Setup must begin after 3:00 p.m. on the day prior to the event and must not disrupt normal ADAH business. After delivery, caterers must move vehicles to on-street parking or the ADAH parking lot. Catering support equipment must be removed from ADAH facilities following the event no later than 8:30 a.m. the following work day. No food or drink may be left overnight in the ADAH building.

Some types of food, beverages, and decorations are not allowed in order to protect building materials and finishes. Candles or open flames are prohibited at all events. Plastic beverage containers are preferred. The following food and beverage items are not allowed in carpeted areas (Auditorium, Meeting Rooms, Board Room).

- ▶ Red colored drinks, dark-colored juices, or baked goods with red dye
- ▶ Items with powdered sugar or other powdered coatings
- ▶ Finely grated cheese or loose/crumbly cheese
- ▶ Soft, oily baked goods that crumble easily
- ▶ Oily, dripping sauces

The following food and beverage items are not allowed in marble floor areas (Lobby and Halls)

- ▶ Red or dark-colored juices
- ▶ Acidic beverages or foods such as lemonade, other acidic juices, or pickles

Confirmation

An event will not be considered confirmed until an ADAH Facilities Use Agreement is signed and the applicable fifty-percent (50%) non-refundable deposit is paid to the “Alabama Department of Archives and History.”

Events

ADAH facilities may be reserved for client use when department-related events are not scheduled. First priority for use of ADAH facilities is for ADAH-sponsored or co-sponsored events. The second priority is for events sponsored by other state agencies or activities relating to state government or those that complement the mission of ADAH. All building use must meet the requirements of the State of Alabama Department of Finance Building Use Policy (11/03/06). The ADAH is not available for private social events such as weddings, engagement parties, anniversaries, birthday parties, etc. Events that interfere with public access or use of research facilities, museum galleries, or other department activities are not allowed. Generally daytime events should not start before 9:00 a.m. and must end by 4:00 p.m.; evening events should not start before 6:00 p.m. and should end by 9:00 p.m. Admission fees may not be charged for events at the ADAH and solicitation is prohibited.

Fire Concerns

Clients and their guests must comply with state and local fire codes. Smoking or any open flames (candles, etc.) are strictly prohibited.

Fees

Fee schedules are broken down into two fee categories depending on the status of the client: private/corporate groups and 501-C-3 non-profit groups. Proof of 501-C-3 status must be provided. Additional fees are required for equipment use and for events held outside of normal business hours. Other equipment or services, including security, are the responsibility of the client. The client is also responsible for any replacement costs or repairs involving damage or loss to ADAH equipment or building. See attached Section F (Facility Use Fee Schedule) for amenities and rental costs.

Floral Arrangements, Decorations, Lighting

Purchase of flower arrangements and decorations (including signs and banners) is the responsibility of the client; however, dimensions and placement must be approved by ADAH staff. Placement of floral arrangements must not endanger the historical collections and foliage must be free of pests prior to entering the building. Museum lighting must not be disturbed and no artwork may be moved. Any outside supplemental lighting must be approved by the ADAH Security/Facility Manager, and all local electrical codes must be met. No flowers or other decorations may be affixed to walls, columns, hand rails, doors, ceilings, floors, or furniture inside or outside the facility.

Hold Harmless Release

As a condition for use of the ADAH facilities, the reserving client must sign an ADAH Facilities Use Agreement (Section E), which includes a hold harmless release to protect the Alabama Department of Archives & History from liability for incidents that may occur during the client use of ADAH facilities.

Noise Restrictions

No musical performance, presentation, or assembly involving amplified devices (except those sponsored/co-sponsored by the ADAH), may be held inside the lobby or near the building entrances during business hours. Live and recorded entertainment are permitted at special events after-hours, as long as the volume is at a reasonable level. The ADAH reserves the right to request alteration of excessive sound levels.

Parking

Free parking is available near the ADAH. See attached map (Section C) for directions to the Alabama Department of Archives and History and parking locations.

Payment

Clients will be billed prior to the function for any event fees. A deposit of 50% of the total amount due is required when the ADAH Facilities Use Agreement is signed. The remainder is payable no later than the day of the event. Failure to receive fee payment may result in cancellation of the event. Fees are payable to the Alabama Department of Archives and History, 624 Washington Ave. Montgomery, Alabama 36130-0100. All fees collected are deposited in and expended from the Archival Services Fund as provided under Chapter 41-6-76, Code of Alabama, 1975.

Pets

Animals, except for service animals, are not permitted in the Alabama Department of Archives and History.

Photography

Photography is generally permitted inside the ADAH. Because of copyright rules, some museum displays may not be photographed. The ADAH Security/Facility Manager will point these out to the client.

Publicity and Invitations

All publicity, invitations, or announcements must reflect the venue name: The Alabama Department of Archives and History

Reservation Procedures

Please call the ADAH Public Services Office at (334) 242-4363 to request to use Archives facilities. The ADAH Facility/Security Manager will contact the client to coordinate details and confirm availability and fees. The ADAH Facilities Use Agreement and invoice will be sent to the client after the facility use is approved. Upon receipt of the signed agreement and 50% of the rental deposit, the facility will be considered reserved and a verification letter will be sent to the client. Reservations may be made up to six months in advance.

Setups and Maintenance

Setup for events must be coordinated with the ADAH Security/Facilities Manager so as not to interfere with day-to-day operations. If the event equipment is provided by the ADAH, staff will set up and take down equipment as part of the rental agreement. If equipment is provided by an outside rental service, setup and breakdown of equipment are the responsibility of the client. The clients must provide their own serving personnel for catered events. The Archives cannot provide equipment for use outside of our facility, and is not responsible for ground maintenance for outside events. All rental equipment and any catering equipment must be removed from the Archives no later than 8:30 a.m. the following work day.

Cleanup and maintenance are provided by ADAH for events during operational hours. For events after-hours, additional fees are assessable to be paid directly to custodial maintenance personnel. See Section F, Facilities Use Fee Schedule, for added fees for custodial personnel.

Security

Security (and charges for these services) for after-hours events is the responsibility of the client, though all security must be coordinated with the ADAH Facility/Security Manager.

The client is responsible for the conduct of guests while on the premises. The client and guests shall conform to, comply with and abide by the laws of the United States and the State of Alabama; the rules and regulations of all State and Federal Boards and Bureaus, the ordinances of the City of Montgomery, and the codes and regulations of the Fire Department, Board of Health, and the Alabama Department of Archives and History. Violation of any of these codes could result in immediate contact of the appropriate enforcement authorities and/or cancellation of the event.

Although the facility is secure after hours, the ADAH cannot guarantee, or be responsible for, security of equipment left overnight by clients. The ADAH assumes no responsibility for guests' automobiles or personal property whether remaining in the automobile or checked/left in the ADAH building. Clients assume all responsibility for any goods or materials which they may place in the Archives before, during, or after any event.

Smoking

The Alabama Department of Archives and History is a smoke-free facility.

Signs and Banners

In special instances, banners may be displayed outside the ADAH building, but the ADAH must approve ALL banners and signs during the initial event planning. Outside banners must be hung by a professional sign company. No signs, decorations, or displays may be affixed to walls, columns, hand rails, doors, ceilings, floors, or furniture inside or outside the facility. Easels are available to display event signs. Dry eraser boards are available in some meeting rooms. Flip-charts and stands are the responsibility of the client.

Storage

The Alabama Department of Archives and History has limited storage space for client equipment. Clients should plan events so that set up begins no earlier than 3:00 p.m. the day prior to the event and setups should be broken down as soon as the event is finished.

Tours and Museum

Tours of the Alabama Department of Archives and History are contingent on availability of staff and the day's events, and must be requested in advance as part of the event reservation process. During free time, meeting attendees are welcome to visit the Museum Galleries or the Archives Research Room. Information on visiting the Archives can be obtained at the Research Room registration desk or by visiting our web site: www.archives.alabama.gov.
